A RIVER RUNS THROUGH CONWAY

SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 2013

Conway Town Hall 4 – 6 pm & Free

Discussion & Refreshments Too!

How the South River shaped Conway and human efforts to shape the river from the 18th century to present day. Through fascinating stories and images, two of Conway's best living historians – David Barten & Philip Kantor – will explore the impact of dams, mills, floods, fertile farmland and the consequences of previous decisions on the current health of our watershed.
